FEATURED PRODUCER

DOMAIN ECONOMOU, ZIROS, CRETE

Yiannis Economou is one of Greece's most artisanal and sought after producers - a vin-de-terroir natural-wine maker of extraordinary ability. Yiannis studied and worked in Barolo, Bordeaux and Germany before returning to Crete in 1994 to resurrect his family's vineyards in the far eastern corner of Crete. Farmed organically, the wines undergo only a small sulphuring at bottling. The red is a local clone of the Liatiko grape (not a million miles off a powerful nebbiolo) and the white from the increasingly popular Assyrtiko, in an oxidative style, showing off delicious herbaceous, honey and toffee notes. All in all gutsy and wild, not only amongst the best from Greece but arguably much further afield too.
